We Offer You The TO BE "CAMP BLAKE"

Roster of Officer's and Mess List-A Strams.

Camp Blake, in honor of the genial captain of the steamer Macalester and part owner of Marshal Hall, has been chosen as the title for the camp to be held by a provisional regiment of the District of Columbia National Guard, 425 strong, under command of Maj. Otto L. Suess, at Marshall Hall next week. Every detail for the encampment has now been completed, and Maj. Suess can see no tially states that there shall be no hitch in any department; first, because he has firstclass men in the points, and second, because he intends to keep his eye on everything, even to the cooking of the meals. And the popular major is noted for the eagle-like sharpness of both his eyes.

sharpness of both his eyes.

A meeting of the officers who are to participate in the outing was held on Tuesday evening. After Maj. Suess had briefly stated what would be expected of them, the gentlemen thoroughly discussed an officer's power to arrest, and also the manner of treating raw troops in camp. Before adjourning, the major admonished his subordinates not to be affected with the prevailing malady among certain National Guard officers—a swelled head, but to remember that the men under them possess feelings as well as the officers themselves, and must be treated accordingly. Maj. Suess fully expects, during the encampment, every enexpects, during the encampment, every en-listed man to accord to every officer the rights and privileges to which the latter is entitled by his rank, and by saluting all of-ficers of whatsoever rank those guardsmen not wearing shoulder straps will prove that they have a true conception of the duty of a Free From Arrest. The custom of placing non-commissioned officers in the guard house for the slightest offense, a custom that is strictly original with the National Grard, is very often put into practice, but no action of that nature will be permitted to occur at "Camp Blake," if Major Suecs can avoid it, and he thinks he can. When he has broken his arrest or has committed a crime for which the sever-est known punishment is the penalty are the est known punishment is the penalty are the only occasions when a non-commissioned officer should be placed in the guard house. To confine indiscriminately has a very demoralizing effect upon a command, but Major Suess states that he does not anticipate the slightest trouble from the members of the provisional regiment, as he is of the opinion that they are all gentlemen, and know how to conduct themselves, but if

know how to conduct themselves, but if not, it is thought that they can be clearly taught during the week.

Lieut. Swigart, in command of a squad of twenty-two men, left at 9 o'clock this morn-ing for Marshall Hall to erect tents and ing for Marshall Hall to erect tents and otherwise put the camp in proper shape for the arrival of the regiment on Saturday. When the magnitude of their task is considered they are not to be envied.

The engineer corps has arranged for a complete carrier pigeon service between Washington and Marshall Hall during the way of "Comp. Hake." The birds are to be stay at "Camp Blake." The birds are to be shipped from the clay at 0:30 a. m. on the River Queen, and will be liberated at 1.00n.

All that is lacking to make the encampment complete is alkeld piece by means of which the natives for miles about Marshall Hall might be officially hotified of the exact hour when the sun fises and also the moment it smiles "good-night" and retires behind the green hills of Virginia in the evening. Lieut. Mellach just signified his willingness to go to camp for the nursess lingness to go to camp for the purpose of instructing a squad of "Dough-boys" in the art of firing a cannon, and it is hoped that he will be successful in abtaining the use of a gun from the battery for that purpose.

Efficient Hospital Corps. The camp hospital is to be under the care of an efficient corps of able and experienced geon of the fifth battalion, has been apby Dr. Francis J. Woodman, sixth battalion; by Dr. Francis J. Woodman, sixth battalion;
Dr. James A. Watson, ambulance corps, and
Dr. Clarence A, Weaver, third battalion
Should any of the campers require the services of trained nurses four hospital nurses will be on hand to see that they pull through as speedily as possible.

The hospital is to corsist of two tents, containing twelve beds, and one dispensary tent. They are constantly to be in charge of a surgeon and a hospital steward and each a surgeon and a hospital steward, and each morning at sick call a surgeon and a hos-pital steward will be in attendance at the dispensary to administer squibs or quinine to allay the miner ills of the soldier boys. Another feature of the medical department of the camp will be a daily inspection by one of the surgeons, acting in the capacity of health officer. The food will also be inspected before each meal by a surgeon, thereby insuring wholesome diet throughout the encampment. The hospital is to be fenced in by capacity. fenced in by ropes, and everything possible done to insure the utmost quiet. This hospital service is expected to equal, as near as the circumstances render possible, that of the best regulated similar institution anywhere.

CHINESE TROOPS LANDED. Japanese Soldiers in Corea Start To ward the Enemy's Position. A dispatch from Yokohama, dated yester day, states that the Japanese troops in Corea have commenced a forward movement against the positions occupied by the Chinese troops in the same country. A battle is daily expected.

Reports come from Shanghai that the Reports come from Shanghai that the 12,000 Chinese troops which left Taku on July 29 for Corea, conveyed by eight gunboats, have landed in Corea. The gunboats escorting the transports having these troops on board had instructions to fire upon the Japanese if the latter obstructed the landing of this army. The other troops which left Foo-Chow for the Loo-Chow Isiand are also said to l-ave safely reached their destination.

It is stated there that if the report of

It is stated there that if the report of landing of the Chinese troops unopposed is correct the prospects of a peaceful settlement of the disputes between China and Japan are improved. Japan are improved, as the Chinese flee of transports and gunboats could scarcely have escaped the vigilance of the Japanese war vessels if the latter had been preparing to oppose the landing of the Chinese force. This is said at Shanghai to show that Leren to see the landing of the Chinese force. that Japan is now more amenable to counsels of the treaty powers.

Views in Londor.

There is a strong impression at the Japanese legation in London that fighting is in progress in Corea, although no official no tice to that effect has been received. It is said at the legation that there are only about 200 Chinese troops in Seoul, while there are between 5,000 and 6,000 Corean excited much interest in London. When ficial circles here disclaim all definite knowledge of the Washington government's intention, they hold the opinion that any action from Washington is much more likely to be individual than joint. A dispatch from Shanghai says: American residents here suggest the suzerainty of the United States as the readiest solution of the problem, but the European residents do not regard the suggestion as serious.

And Amienble Settlement. The Shanghai correspondent of the Centrai News says: Numerous rumors of further fighting at Seoul are current here, but none can be confirmed. The Coreans continue to menace the Japanese of the Seoul garrison. Intelligent native opinion here is that there will be an amicable settlement in which the Europeans will have no share. The Chinese arsenals and arms factories are busy night and day. The officers of Chinese gunboats are filling the numerous vacancies on the vessels with seamen, attracted by generous bounties.

The Central News says: Great Britain has informed Chine and leaves the statement of the control of t on the Street. Andrew Jackson, a colored voter in Baltimore, who conducted a colored lodging house there, and did a good business, was not satisfied to lead an honest life after he had made the acquaintance of a certain female, and now he is in trouble. Until a few days ago Andrew had been a respected member of colored society there, and his house was conducted in a manner which resulted in his getting a great many lodgers. He, however, wanted to take a little trip over here and enjoy himself, and, being without the necessary funds, he approriated to his own use the effects of several of his lodgers. A watch he pawned in Bal-timore for $3, and with part of this money he paid for his railroad tickets. Dressed good suit of clothes belonging to one he lodgers, he came over here, and had located in O'Neill's court southwest for a few days. He was more than pleased with the new surroundings, and would probably have made this his permanent home had not Detective Todd Hall of Baltimore come

The officials at the Chinese 'egation have heard nothing of the reported sinking of a Chinese transport by a Japanese vessel. They say that their information indicates an improvement in the situation, and they are hopeful that peace will be restored, if it has been formally broken. It is understood that the British squadron in Chinese waters has been ordered to defer its cruise northward.

The suggestion that the United States might intervene in the Corean difficulty has excited much interest in London. We are ficial circles here disclaim all definite.

Mrs. T. Farrell is spending a few days at Colonial Beach.

A dispatch received at the State Depart ment yesterday from Minister Sill, at Seoul, brings official corroboration of the news that an engagement has taken place in or near that city between Japanese and Corean troops, in which the latter were defeated. The telegraphic service via Shanghai is at present so unsatisfactory that it is next to impossible to know what is going on in the hermit kingdom. From what can be gathered, however, it is thought that a large body of Chinese troops is camped south of Chemulpo and that the six to ten thousand Japanese troops in and around Seoul are marching against them.

England would, of course, object to Russia's advance southward into Corean territory, but she, on her side, would be very willing to be pacified if she were permitted to take possession of Port Hamilton, the island which she evacuated some years ago on the condition that Russia would cease her efforts to establish a naval station on the her efforts to establish a naval station on the island of Quaelpert and under no circumstances occupy Corean territory. If Russia is already at Port Lazareff it would not be surprising to learn of England re-establishing herself at Port Hamilton. This move is one to be carefully watched. The establishment of a naval station by any European power in the Corean channel, which would give command of the Northern Pacific, should be strenuously opposed. There should be no Gibraltar permitted as a menace to either Japan of Corea or as a check to Russia in the Pacific. Japan is young to Russia in the Pacific. Japan is young enough and strong enough to take upon her-self the wardership of Japanese-Corean waters. It is, in fact, to Japan that the world must look for the solution of all the ques-tions which threaten to be so disturbing. Corea has no right to remain in Corea. Corea has been for years virtually an independent state. She has her own ambassadors, has made her own treaties with for-whom were originally in the Japanese diplication service, have strenuously worked for the maintenance of reciprocal relations between the two countries. The Corean ministers, indeed, have shown a praise-worthy desire to see the hermit kingdom led into civilization by her more advanced and powerful neighbor.

To permit China to again interfere in the affairs of Corea, to destroy or hold back the advance of modern civilization, to thwart Japan's sincere efforts to bring about needed reforms in Corea, to drag the hermit kingdom back into fetidalism and isolation, would be to permit the close of the nineteenth century to be disgraced with one of the greatest of international crimes. We have a duty imposed upon us in all this business in the far east, and that is to exert our influence in favor of Japan by all possible moral and diplomatic means in our power.

not Detective Todd Hall of Baltimore come over here and obtained the assistance of the local officers.

Detective Proctor spent a night with the Baltimore detective, but did not succeed in locating the negro. They were in the vicinity of the house where he was stopping, however, and Jackson, learning that the officers were looking for him, packed his stolen satchel early in the morning and started from the house, intending to follow the example of many of the commonwealers and seek refuge within the boundaries of the old dominion. But Policeman Collin E. custody.

Detective Hall recognized him as one of his constituents, and Andrew said a woman was the cause of his wrongdoing. He was taken back to Baltimore for trial. About a Note. Answering the suit of Wm. H. Forreste

China and Japan in Cores. From the New York Herald.

A really startling piece of news-which is, however, discredited in Washington-is of the landing of a thousand Russian soldiers at Gen-san, or at Port Lazaret, a harbor on Russia as a terminus for her trans-Siberian rairoad and a port which would be of ininitely greater advantage to her than Vladivostock, which is ice bound during four months of the year. It would be unlike Russia to remain quiescent when such a prize as Port Lazareff is to be had for a great commercial and naval station on the Pacific. It is possible, indeed, that Russia is at Port Lazareff, and intends to hold the class until the difficulty between Japan and place until the difficulty between Japan and China shall be settled. England would, of course, object to Rus-
